

THREE DAYS

By Keith Greer

For a few moments, let us consider some special "days" mentioned in the scriptures.

The Day of Salvation. "For He says: In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you. Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." {2 Corinthians 6:2}

The sinner needs to understand that the time of "his salvation" is today. We have no promise of tomorrow. When one recognizes his lost condition, TODAY should be the day he obeys. Procrastination causes many to wait for that "more convenient time." Sadly, Felix wanted to wait for such a day and the scriptures are silent that the day ever came around in his life. One's soul is too valuable and eternity is too long for one to take such a risk!

The Day of Christ. "Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ." {Philippians 1:6}

This will be the day when we receive our eternal inheritance. God promised that all of his children who live faithfully before Him will receive heaven as a reward. The "last day" is promised and we just don't know when it will come. All we can do is be prepared by living every day as if this might be the day – one day it will be!

The Day of Vengeance. "For we know Him who said, vengeance is Mine, I will repay, says the Lord. And again, The LORD will judge His people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." {Hebrews 10:30,31}

God has appointed a day when the world will be judged {Acts 17:30,31}. Every person will stand before the judgment seat of Christ and give an account (2 Corinthians 5:10). This will be a day of eternal vengeance on those who are unprepared to meet God. Who faces this danger? "In flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." {2 Thessalonians 1:8}

Dear reader, which day best fits your situation at this very moment in your life? ***
